FOREWORD

Thank you, flower lovers, for your fine orders of last season. With our increased plantings and acreage of Iris we hope to fill your orders promptly with the finest and hardiest stock available. We have tried to add the finest of the newer Irises and the choice of the older sorts.

If anyone is interested in varieties not listed, write and in all probability we have the variety or can secure same for you at current market prices.

We have customers in every state; our plants do well anywhere. Since we are located in the "wheat belt" of an extremely long growing season we have shipped plants from earliest spring until the ground freezes. Every plant we sell is grown naturally and hand dug. A trial order will convince you of their quality and hardiness.

Don't overlook the fine new Oriental Poppies—they are as hardy as Iris and furnish an unequaled splash of bloom at the end of the Iris season. The new Dwarf and Re-Blooming Irises also deserve a place in your gardens along with a few of our fine Miscellaneous Bearded novelties.

We do not substitute except in collections; refunds promptly made if sold out. It is to your advantage to name one or more substitutes when placing your order late in the season. For terms of sale, see inside back cover.

Sincerely,

MELVIN G. GEISER

BEARDED IRIS

Each season these flower two or more times—
Spring and Fall. Try them and pick a bouquet in November, we have. They are just as hardy as any Iris but they should be given a short rest after the spring blooming season then watered heavily to produce the second crop of flowers.

A FRANK STATEMENT

Iris is best planted in the early summer or fall, however to those customers who prefer spring planting we will try to comply. The majority of irises priced 35c and up will not be available for spring shipment due to replanting late in the preceding fall, the necessity for roguing all plantings at blooming time to remove any untrue varieties, and the derangement of exhibition plots for the coming blooming season. You may order your entire iris want list early in the spring and we will fill what we can in the spring and make reservation for fall shipment on the balance giving you the benefit of all price reductions as found in our Fall 1948 Catalog which will be out about May 1st, 1948, or earlier.

If you order late, give 2nd choice

Oriental Poppies

For bold landscape effect with a hardy perennial that can also be used as a cut flower, you will find the Oriental Poppy fast coming into prominence. Poppies can be grown wherever iris can be grown. We have found them prodigious bloomers without irrigation. Diameter of bloom indicated by letters S, M, or L, meaning small, medium or large.

Orders filled only between 20th August and 20th September — positively no spring shipments. POSTPAID prices if included in an order of $2.00 or more. (peonies excepted).

UNLUCKY 13 ? ? — NOT THIS YEAR

The proverbial unlucky 13 may be your lucky number. This year we are going to double every order we write which ends in number 13. For example if your order number happens to be 13, 113, 213, etc., we will give double value in everything you ordered.

UNLUCKY 13 — NOT ON YOUR LIFE!

IRISARIAN CHECK LIST CONTEST

Periodically the American Iris Society publishes an authoritative book on all iris now in commercial existence, listing a wealth of information such as originator, introduced and registered dates, type and color classification, awards won, etc.

To encourage the sale of the American Iris Society Check List we make the following offer: Look over our iris list and see if you can find either—

- (1) a mis-spelled iris name.
- (2) an iris listed in the incorrect section (i. e. an iris listed as a dwarf when it should be listed as a tall bearded).
- (3) an omission of an Award won. or
- (4) an omission of the fragrance symbol (if the iris has a definite fragrance).

—If you find any of the above errors, send us proof of the correct information (giving page number of the A.I.S. Checklist) and for each error and proven correction accepted by us we will allow you 25c in credit toward iris of your choice.

If you do not have a copy of the Check List (together with supplement) send your remittance (3.00 for American Iris Society members and $4.00 for non-members) to American Iris Society, 821 Washington Loan & Trust Bldg., Washington, D. C., or send your remittance to us and we will have a copy mailed to you.

OUR TREASURE CHEST

Like jewels, fondly treasured, we offer these excerpts from letters of satisfied customers in every section of the country:

"Thanks for plants, all are fine especially peony as most are so small I've received before."
WILSON, KANSAS

"Thank you very much for the fine perennials you sent me, also the extra Iris roots. I hope to order from you again."
HAIGLER, NEBR.

"Received the poppies in grand shape. I can truthfully say they were the nicest I've ever had, and I've bought many. Seems I always got poorer poppies than anything else I ever bought. Thanks so much."
REINERSVILLE, OHIO

"Just a line to let you know how well pleased I was with the iris plants, never in my 15 years of buying have I had as nice large plants. Thank you."
WATERLOO, IOWA

"Received your kind letter. . . . and iris sent to me. . . . Don't know of any place I could get better rhizomes. But is a fact that heretofore I have received much poorer stock, some with only a root or two. . . . from a leading . . . grower."
GRANGER, WASH.

"I have been collecting iris for only a short time, but I have had great pleasure in them so far. In looking over your list of Iris I have never seen such iris so low in price."
ALBANY, TEXAS

"The iris you shipped to me arrived so early . . . , and I was much pleased with their quality. Thank you."
N. CALDWELL, N. J.

"Am enclosing $2.00 for iris. Send whatever you have of list enclosed. Well satisfied with those received yesterday."
MILWAUKEE, WISC.

"Please send your new pamphlet to me as I want to order some iris this year. My last order sure bloomed beautiful this season."
ST. LOUIS, MO.

"A few days ago I received my box of lovely iris. I want to thank you for the extra ones you sent me. They were of them."
FALLS CITY, NEBR.
